“Engaging the Culture For Christ”

Professor Louis Markos of the Houston Baptist University

Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church, Yaphank

will sponsor Professor Louis Markos who will speak at The Stony Brook School on how we can be effective witnesses and apologists for Christ in the 21st century.

Professor Markos received his BA from Colgate University and his MA and PhD from the University of Michigan. He is Professor in English & Scholar in Residence at Houston Baptist University, and he holds the Robert H. Ray Chair in Humanities. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Dr. Markos speaks widely all over the United States and is the author of From Achilles to Christ: Why Christians Should Read the Pagan Classics, Lewis Agonistes, Apologetics for the 21st Century, Restoring Beauty: The Good, the True, and the Beautiful in the Writings of C. S. Lewis, and On the Shoulders of Hobbits: The Road to Virtue with Tolkien and Lewis. Dr. Markos has also recorded several courses for The Teaching Company.
